WORKSHOP SCHEDULE

SATURDAY

9:30 AM -10:30 AM

Clothing in Scotland and Ireland: 16th through the 18th Centuries By Kathrina Black

A brief overview of clothing in Scotland and Ireland during the 16th through the 18th centuries. If you are interested in putting a costume together for Renaissance Fairs or you are a fan of Outlander, this is the class for you! We will discuss both men's and women's clothing and have a chance to look at some examples from the period.

10:30 AM - 11:30 AM

Join Our Country Dance Group! Scottish Country Dance is the social dancing of Scotland. It is an opportunity to come and enjoy music, dancing and good company! No dance experience is necessary. Come by yourself or bring a friend. <http://7pipers.org/>

12:30 PM - 1:30 PM

Muriel Fisher of the Isle of Skye

She is an engaging and entertaining speaker who delights audiences wherever she goes. Currently she teaches Scottish Gaelic at the U of A and works in the Linguistics Department as a Research Specialist. Join her for a wee presentation on Scottish Gaelic.

3:00 PM - 4:00 PM

It's All About the Little White Dog By Ashleen O'Gaea

The West Highland White Terrier is the only breed directly related to a particular Scottish clan: The MacCallum-Malcolm clan's current chief's great-grandfather developed and named the breed! Learn more - and meet an AKC champion Westie!

4:00 PM - 5:30 PM

Sons of the American Revolution – Come see a wonderful presentation about the Scots in the American Revolution By Dr. Rudy Byrd.

sunday

9:30 AM - 10:30 AM

Kirkan O' The Tartan By Reverend Doug Knox

10:30 AM - 11:30 AM

Storyteller Lona Bartlett presents a variety of Celtic stories. She'll take you to Ireland, Scotland, Wales and England. She'll share a Jack tale or two; stories brought to the Appalachian Mountains of the United States by the Scotch-Irish. Come sit a spell and listen.

12:30 PM - 1:30 PM

Muriel Fisher of Skye – Gaelic Journey

1:30 PM - 2:30 PM

Spirit of Alba Lodge #264

Hear a talk by the Daughters of Scotia, a celebration of Scotland and Sisterhood. Daughters of Scotia is a fraternal order that was founded in New Haven, CT. Membership is available to all women who are of Scottish descent, those who were born in Scotland, or married to men of Scottish descent. Our booth is located in the societies area.

3:00 PM - 3:20 PM

Storyteller Bartlett will tell a combination of spooky stories from here to across the pond. Bring someone with you so you have a hand to hold. Great for families with young ones.

3:20 PM - 4:00 PM

Storyteller: Lona Bartlett

Kinda Creepy

For those that don't really want to be scared but like to feel a shiver. Followed by Chill Your Spine— For those that like to be spooked or creeped out.
